Subject: Youth Programs

DD: 8/10/01

As the new coordinator for the Wonderful Outdoor World Program (WOW) and the Hospitality Pipeline (HOP), Margaret Dwyer has received a brief introduction to the great youth programs and experiences all of you are implementing. Because the public, Congress and the BLM web site should have current information about these exciting and innovative programs, I have asked Margaret to get information from you on any youth programs or experiences in which your Field Office is involved.

Please send the information requested below to Michelle Homer, AZ-910, by August 10, 2001. You may provide existing articles, reports, or printed material on these programs.

Field Office Youth Program Information

1. List the name and description of programs for young people (elementary through college) that you deliver or in which you participate.
2. For description of programs provide:
 - purpose (environmental education, workforce development, other);
 - activities;
 - their frequency (as requested, monthly etc.);
 - age range of participants;
 - role BLM plays;
 - limitations to BLM resources (can provide: only during particular times of year, when funds/staff available etc.);
 - other partners;

- approximate number of participants;
- program outcomes (numbers of participants, behavior/attitude changes, skills learned etc.);
- descriptive or educational material available (please send sample); and
